DORIS ERDMAN 1906-1987

Doris L. Erdman, daughter of Dr. William Erdman, beloved physician of Buckingham, Pa., and Clara Lovett Erdman, died January 12, 1987. Until her retirement, she spent her adult life as a teacher, first at Abington Friends School and then in the public schools of Newtown. Children were her special joy and she considered it a privilege to instruct them. Doris was a friend to all, thoughtful, generous, and loving.
